Dear chevre,

It's hard to believe five months have passed since I started as the rabbi of Temple Emanu-El. Although five months is not a typical milestone, it still feels significant to me to be writing an article for the December bulletin. Time is a funny thing. Summer feels both like yesterday and an entire lifetime ago as I write this letter to you. As we get to know each other, I'm sure you'll see that I like to reflect on experiences. Looking back is not limited to the High Holiday season, and it gives us the opportunity to appreciate where we've been, what we've done, and what we would like to plan for the future.

In that spirit, November was a busy month in the life of our community. We had a lovely mix of long-standing traditions and new programs, giving us many opportunities to enjoy being together and find strength in each other. We came together for good food at Soup Shabbat and at kiddush after our services. We learned together on Sunday afternoons. We helped people in need by collecting and delivering food and household items to Emmaus with our religious school students. We took time to honor the memory of military veterans and of Holocaust victims and survivors. We also met on Zoom to mark sh'loshim for the war in Israel. Throughout November, we kept showing up for each other and the community, supporting one another through what has been a difficult month for Jewish people everywhere through the gift of presence and acts of loving-kindness.

As the temperatures continue to drop, I am reminded of a teaching from Rabbi Menachem Mendel of Kotzk, an 18th century Hasidic leader. The Kotzker rebbe explained that there are two things a person can do when it is winter and freezing cold. A person can build a fire, or a person can wrap themselves in a fur coat. In both cases, the person will be warm. With the fur coat, the only person who is warmed is the one who wears the coat.

But when one builds a fire, all who gather round will also be warmed.

And it is the same for spiritual warmth.

When I look back at November with Temple Emanu-El, what stands out for me is the togetherness. I believe that coming together warmed our hearts and nourished our spirits, much like the fire in the Kotzker Rebbe's teaching. I want to take that experience of spiritually warm gathering forward as we move into December. Although days are short in December and often cold, I am looking forward to the light and warmth we will create together at Temple Emanu-El.

Chanukah is right around the corner, and we have several events to celebrate our resilience and to enjoy the light from the candles and from each other.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

We will begin to prepare for Chanukah with our congregational latke making on Sunday December 3 at 9:00 am.

On Friday December 8, Temple Emanu-El is the place to be! Come enjoy a delicious potluck supper at 6:00 pm, light the Salk Memorial chanukkiyah on the temple portico at 6:45 pm, and welcome in Shabbat Chanukah at 7:00 pm with our religious school students and the beautiful music of our Makheila singers. Our community Chanukah party will be on Sunday December 10 at 10:30am, and we will light the Salk Memorial chanukkiyah again on Tuesday December 12 at 6:45 pm. I hope to see many of you at these occasions and look forward to basking in the warm glow of Chanukah with you.

In addition to all of the Chanukah events, we will continue to welcome Shabbat each Saturday morning at 9:30 am, and we will continue to explore Rabbi Spitzer's book God is Here: Reimagining the Divine together on Sunday afternoons at 3:00 pm. Back at Yom Kippur, I spoke of the importance of community, what a blessing it is to be a part of a community. Jewish tradition teaches us not to separate from the community and that each of us brings valuable and unique gifts to make the group whole and holy. The month of December has so many opportunities to come to Temple Emanu-El and be in community with each other. Come to Temple Emanu-El this month to connect, reconnect, and delight in the warmth we create when we gather together.

Bivracha,

Rabbi Ashira

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Chag Sameach Temple Emanu-El,

Chanukah is almost here and there are many things going on at the Temple. Please review the calendar for what is going on, but I will highlight 2 events. Latke making on this Sunday, December 3rd. Reach out to Lisa Anthony (office@templeemanu-el.org), Sharyn Russell, or Morry Korinow to inquire how you can help. We will together make enough latkes for local deliveries, have at services, and enjoy at the Temple/Religious School Chanukah party. Many hands make light work, so I encourage you to grab your potato peeler and join us for this event. In another couple weeks, we will get to participate in the official Installation of Rabbi Stevens! Rabbi Judson of Hebrew College will be coming to officiate the ceremony, which will be done as part of the Saturday morning service on December 16th. Please come, bring others, RSVP to Lisa (e-mail above), and your joy and a brunch item, so that we can celebrate this simchah together.

There are so many individuals who make our community strong, but I would like to say a special "Todah Rabbah" to a few – Fredi Anne Hurwitz for donating her snow blower to the Temple, and Lisa Anthony and her husband Jon for picking up, tuning up and getting the snow blower ready for the season, and delivering it to the Temple. We are better prepared for the winter because of all of your efforts.

Have a Happy Chanukah and please to reach out with any questions/comments, president@templeemanu-el.org.

L'Shalom
Jenn

MINDY'S MUSINGS

Dear Friends,

Happy Chanukah and I wish you great joy and celebration at this time of miracles. We have had a wonderful first semester of Religious School, with a new Chug program and lots of activities and a few new families that joined us this year. In particular, I want to give a shout out to Gwen Larsen who is volunteering by teaching Israeli dancing in our Religious School once a month. It is such a joy to see our kids moving around in our building again, and inspirational to see them enjoying our culture in its many forms.

B'ezrat Hashem, I hope maybe by the time you receive this we will have some light at the end of the dark tunnel we have been experiencing recently. However, at this upcoming time of joy, our lights will likely still be dimmed by the time Chanukah is upon us because of the Israeli and foreign hostages still being held in Gaza, IDF soldiers losing their lives, and the Palestinian families who have lost loved ones or been displaced in the war. As you think about lighting your Chanukah menorah this year, maybe consider lighting an extra candle that sits aside your menorah, which represents all the people who will not be celebrating Chanukah this year. And at this time of dedication, let's dedicate our lives to bringing peace in our world and hoping/praying for everyone's safety and wellbeing.

THANK YOU

Families - Thank you to all our Religious School parents and families and temple members that contributed to our Emmaus House Food Drive in November this year. Our community always has folks who are food insecure and we are helping our own neighbors right in our backyard.

UPCOMING RELIGIOUS SCHOOL EVENTS

★ TEMPLE EMANU-EL ★

Honor Your Father and Your Mother

It is a widely observed Jewish tradition to commemorate the passing of a loved one by memorializing those that have departed with a yahrzeit plaque on a dedicated memorial wall.

At Temple Emanu-El, these plaques are lit on the yahrzeit, or anniversary of death, and for Yizkor services.

Plaques are inscribed with the name of the deceased in both English and Hebrew as well as the date of the person's death. They are available to view whenever the sanctuary is open.

The one-time cost of the plaque is $300. To purchase a plaque in honor of a departed loved one, order online or contact Lisa or Rabbi Stevens at 978.373.3861.
