Dear chevre,

Spring is in the air!

The rabbis of the Mishnah considered the first of Nisan, the month we are about to enter, as the new year for kings and festivals. That is, the month of Nisan is the first month of the Jewish calendar even though the calendar year renews in the fall at Rosh HaShanah. I often think of the Jewish year cycle in two parts—the fall season and the spring season. In the fall, we celebrate the new Jewish year and the end of the harvest. In the spring, we have another new year, and we celebrate the beginning of the agricultural cycle.

Just as we have a flurry of holidays in the fall, so too we have much to celebrate and observe in the spring. Most of our holiday energy during Nisan will be directed toward preparing for and celebrating Pesach, Passover. Pesach is one of three pilgrimage festivals, Shavuot and Sukkot being the other two.

When the ancient Temple still stood, Israelites were expected to travel to Jerusalem for each of these three festivals, where they would observe the rituals facilitated by the kohanim, the priests.

All three pilgrimage festivals have agricultural and historical connections, which we can explore in their own times. Pesach marks the beginning of the barley harvest in Israel, and it commemorates our liberation from slavery in Egypt. This year, as I considered these very different focal points of the holiday, I realized the agricultural and historical themes have something in common. Both the harvest and the liberation were accomplished through the combined effort of the Israelite community. In the Babylonian Talmud, the barley harvest involved a beit din (three knowledgeable Jewish adults), the emissaries who would travel to Jerusalem for the festival, and all the inhabitants of the town so that the barley would be harvested with great fanfare. In the story of the Exodus from Egypt, we read about how every household had to prepare to leave. Then God told Moses to speak to the whole community about how to commemorate the occasion in the future, including the command to share their Pesach lamb with their neighbors.

In our times, we continue to observe Pesach individually and as a whole community. Each of us individually prepares our homes in anticipation of the seders we will enjoy with our friends and family.

Although Jewish law does not require a minyan, a group of ten people, for a seder, we are obligated to tell the story of what God did for each of us when God brought us out of Egypt.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Storytelling requires at least more than one person, and preferably happens in a group. This year, Temple Emanu-El will host a community seder on Sunday April 21 at 5:00 pm. You might have noticed that our congregational seder happens on the day before Pesach actually begins. This date was chosen in part not to conflict with any plans you might have made for other nights of Pesach. Please consider bringing a favorite dairy or pareve Passover dish to share. This event is intended to be welcoming to all of our members and any friends and relations you would like to invite. To put it more plainly, come one and all, all ages and stages!

In addition to our community seder, I want to invite you to a few other events coming up this month.

On April 6 at 9:30 am, we will celebrate and offer our blessings to Cory Goldstein, son of Loren and Michelle, and Amy Aisenberg when they are called up to Torah in honor of their upcoming wedding. The Goldstein family will be hosting a kiddush luncheon after services. This aufruf is a joyful occasion to give well-wishes while also connecting with the community.

On April 12 at 6:30 pm, we will enjoy another Soup Shabbat. I look forward to continuing this Friday program throughout the year and would welcome your suggestions for a warm weather name and any feedback on the experience.

Finally, the congregational annual meeting will take place on Sunday April 28 at 12:00 pm. I encourage all members in good standing to attend the meeting to learn more about our congregation. Please reach out to Lisa Anthony with any questions about your membership.

On a final note, Pesach and spring bring to my mind the beautiful sacred text of Shir HaShirim, the Song of Songs. This book is traditionally read at Pesach partly because of its nature imagery. Within its exquisite verses is the story of two lovers calling to each other and inviting each other to be together. Although the medieval commentators understood the poetry to be an allegory for the relationship between God and the people Israel, the words can be read through many lenses, including understanding the verses as an aspirational vision of any relationship.

In chapter four, we read:

Awake, north wind!
O south wind, come,
Breathe upon my garden,
Let its perfumes flow.
Let my lover come into his garden
And taste its luscious fruits!

As the weather starts to warm up and the flowers and trees begin to wake up after their winter slumber, I invite you to think of the Temple Emanu-El as a beautiful garden, rich with the delicious fruits of a loving spiritual community. Come into this garden to enjoy what it has to offer!

Bivracha, With blessing,

Rabbi Ashira

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy Spring Temple Congregants!

As Spring shapes up, we get ready to cleanse our houses of chameytz and get ready for Passover. Additionally, we get ready for our Temple's annual meeting, which will be at the end of Passover. As we prepare for this, we are always looking for more volunteers to staff or Board of Directors and our committees. Please reach out Rabbi, Lisa, or I if you are able and willing. We are always looking for leaders in the congregation!

A few things to add to your calendar:

- The Aufruf for Cory Goldstein and Amy Aisenberg on April 6th at 9:30 AM in the sanctuary – Mazel Tov to the Goldstein family on the upcoming wedding!
- Tax Day – April 15th... Did you have fewer nonprofit donations than you had hoped for? Get in those donations to increase them for 2024!
- Community Seder April 21st at 5:00 PM
- Annual Meeting April 28th at noon

At this time of year, we typically have a Telethon where the Board of Directors calls homes and ask for pledges. But, since people have fewer home telephones, we are changing this pledge for support to a "Fund a Need" within our congregation. This year, please pledge to help fund part or all of one of the following needs:

- An upgrade to the sound and broadcasting in the sanctuary, estimated at $30,000
- Fuel expenses, which we expect to total $24,000 based on high heat and energy costs
- Building repairs
 - Repair Main Street doors - $4,000
 - Repair 3rd Floor Ceiling from damage from Roof leaks - $8,000
 - Repair 11th Avenue entrance - $6,000
 - Security, police details for HHD - $2,500

Like all synagogues, we are feel financially constrained between decreasing revenue and high inflation. Any financial support you can provide is greatly appreciated.

As always, please don't hesitate to reach out to me with any questions, concerns, feedback.

Chag Pesach Sameach,
Jenn

*Wishing you and your family
a happy and healthy Passover!*

MINDY'S MUSINGS / RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Greetings Everyone,

We've successfully made it past daylight savings time and onward toward spring. The days are getting longer, the weather is warmer, and our Passover holiday is slowly approaching.

March was a very busy month, with lots going on around Purim. Some THANK YOU's to folks who have helped out in the recent months:

Morry Korinow – thank you so much for spearheading our Hamantashen-baking effort in collaboration with the Chesed committee, and for taking care of our games and food supply for the Purim Carnival.

Sharyn Russell & Amy Sherr – thank you for coordinating Hamantashen-making with our Religious School and for all your leadership remember our at-home members.

Andi Hannula – thank you so much for your donation of candy and prizes and decorations for the Purim Carnival. You are the event expert and are so generous with your contributions.

Scott Hannula, Ross & Amy Moldoff, Lisa Desberg and Angie Lucia – thank you so much for volunteering to help out with our Purim Carnival!

Wendy Lebowitz and Wilson Kapanga-Ndjibu – thank you for helping us with Hamantashen-baking!

Rachel Lefebvre, PJ Library - thank you to Rachel for co-sponsoring our Purim Carnival with PJ Library and for helping out with facepainting!

Amy Moldoff – thank you for helping out preparing our kiddos for Faculty Appreciation Shabbat.

Kim Callan, Rachel Hanson, Karen Godek – thank you for your ongoing creativity and imagination and support with all our holiday/family events!

Rabbi Ashira – thank you for leading Torah Together in March and inspiring our younger families.

As you may have heard from our recent email newsletters, our teachers Kimberly Callan and Rachel Hanson will be moving on from their positions with Temple Emanu-El Religious School at the end of this school year. They have been amazing educators and brought incredible energy and excitement to our kids. Kim has been in her classroom for many decades – and we are very sad to see both of them go. We were so happy to celebrate Kim and Rachel at our Faculty Appreciation Shabbat in March. Please share with them your gratitude whenever you see them at school! More opportunities to say our Thank You's before the end of the year. Stay tuned!

Please note that we will have no school over the beginning of MA April vacation, the weekend of April 14th, but we will have school at the end of that week – April 21st. Look out for a fun April J-Play! on Sunday, April 21st with a Passover Scavenger Hunt!

I hope that April brings some new light and hope to your life and to your Passover tables. It is indeed time for new beginnings and paths towards freedom. I hope you find freedom in your life from that which binds you, and that Passover brings you a sense of personal wholeness and revitalization.

See you in school!

Warmly,

Mindy Harris

Honor Your Father and Your Mother

It is a widely observed Jewish tradition to commemorate the passing of a loved one by memorializing those that have departed with a yahrzeit plaque on a dedicated memorial wall.

At Temple Emanu-El, these plaques are lit on the yahrzeit, or anniversary of death, and for Yizkor services.

Plaques are inscribed with the name of the deceased in both English and Hebrew as well as the date of the person's death. They are available to view whenever the sanctuary is open.

The one-time cost of the plaque is $300. To purchase a plaque in honor of a departed loved one, order online or contact Lisa or Rabbi Stevens at 978.373.3861.
