יזכור

5782 • 2021–2022

תְּהֵינָה נַשְׁמוֹתֵיהֶם צְרוּרוֹת בְּצִרוּר הַחַיִּים.

May the souls of our loved ones named here and all those whom we remember on this day be bound up in the bond of eternal life.

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are those individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine in the darkest night and illumine for us the path....

Leader:

מָה-אֲנוֹשׁ כִּי-תִזְכְּרוּנוּ
וּבֶן-אָדָם כִּי תִפְקְדוּנוּ:
וְתִתְחַסְּרוּהוּ מֵעַט מֵאַלְהִים
וְכְבוֹד וְהַדָּר תִּעֲטֹרֵהוּ:

Adonai, what are we human beings that You should know about us,
We children of the flesh that You should take account
of us?
A person is like a vapor,
Our days as quickly passing as a shadow.
In the morning we flourish and grow tall,
In the evening we are cut down, dried up.
You turn us to contrition saying,
Repent, do Teshuvah, children of the flesh!
Would that we were wise, and understood what will happen to us in the end,
For when we die we take nothing away,
Our glory will not descend along with us.
Observe the innocent person, take notice of the upright,
For the end of such a person is peace.
Adonai can be trusted to redeem the soul of Godly people,
No one who trusts in God shall be confounded.

O God, Author of life and death, our wisdom is small, our vision short. One by one our companions, passing along the road of life, disappear from our view. We know that each must walk the same path to the doorway of the grave. We strain to see what lies beyond the gate, but all is darkness to our mortal sight.

Yet even the darkness is not too dark for You, O God, but the night shines as the day.

You have created us in Your image and made us share in Your enduring righteousness. You have put eternity into our hearts, have implanted within us a vision of life everlasting. This hope we cherish in humility and faith, trusting in Your endless goodness and Your wondrous love.

Into Your hands we commit the spirits of our dear ones for You keep faith with Your children in death as in life.

Sustain us, O God, that we may meet, with calm serenity, the dark mysteries that lie ahead, knowing that when we walk through the valley of the shadow of death, You are with us, a loving Friend in whom we put our trust;
You are the light of our life, our hope in eternity.

I have set the Lord before me always, God is at my right hand; I shall not fail. Therefore my heart rejoices, my whole being exults, and my body rests secure.

Leader: שׁוֹיִתִּי יְהוָה לְנִגְדֵי תְמִיד כִּי מִיְמִינִי בֵּל-אָמוּט:

Shall we cry out in anger, because God's gifts are ours but for a while? Shall we forget the blessing of health the moment it gives way to illness and pain?

*Shall I be ungrateful for the moments of laughter,
The seasons of joy, the days of gladness and festivity,
When tears cloud my eyes
And my heart is heavy within me?*

When we lose our loved and are bereaved, shall we forget the love we have known and in which we have rejoiced?

*Give me the vision to see in every gift
A core of eternity that endures beyond
All misery and affliction.*

Those we have loved, though now beyond our view,
gave form and substance to our beings.

*Into this wide world loved ones brought me, and Loved ones walked with me in loving companionship;
Their absence is painful, but
Their presence, even now, is real.*

Leader:

Eternal God, in whose eyes a thousand years are but as yesterday, in whose hands are the souls of the living and the dead, in Your sight every living soul is precious. O Lord, from whom we come and to whom we return, strengthen us as we now remember our loved ones who have been reunited with You. Be with us as we consecrate this hour to the memory of our departed.

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

*At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

*At the beginning of the year and at its end,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

*When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.*

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

*When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

אַל מְלֵא רַחֲמִים Memorial Prayer

Leader:

O God filled with compassion for those You bring into this world, grant complete peace to the souls of all those we are remembering today, and to all our people who have given their lives to sanctify Your name. Sheltered by Your divine wings, may they join the company of the holy and pure who shine as bright as heaven. Bring their souls into the bond of eternal life that, with You as their portion, they may rest in peace.

Psalm 23

Leader and Congregation:

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. God makes me lie down in green pastures. The Eternal leads me beside still waters. God restores my soul. The Eternal One leads me in right paths for the sake of God's name. Even when I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil, for You are with me; with rod and staff You comfort me. You have set a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil, my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of God forever.
