Dear chevre,

Happy 2024! May this new solar year bring all of us the blessings of good health, loving relationships, and spiritual nourishment.

We begin the book of Sh'mot, Exodus, as we enter the new solar year. The first half of the book of Exodus tells the story of our ancestors going from slavery in Egypt to freedom as they cross the Sea of Reeds and enter into holy covenant with God at Mount Sinai. Just as the book of Genesis tells the story of the Creation of the world, the book of Exodus tells the story of the creation of the Jewish people as a nation. Although our ancestors are consistently referred to as Israelites throughout their time in Egypt, they really only came together as a whole nation after the shared experience of leaving Egypt. When they crossed through the narrowness of the parted Sea of Reeds, it was as though they were collectively born. Their journey to Sinai and beyond through the wilderness was full of shared experiences which strengthen their connections and give them a common historical narrative. In short, simply by living through the same moments together, they became a strong community.

Temple Emanu-El has been and will continue to be a robust community by living through shared experiences together.

Sometimes those shared moments will be big, significant occasions such as our holiday services. Sometimes our community story will be shaped by smaller, everyday interactions such as conversations at book group or over a shared meal. Living through many different kinds of experiences creates personal connections, deepens our relationships with one another, and ultimately strengthens our beloved congregation.

With that in mind and recognizing that we are entering a new solar year, I again invite you to think about how you would like to be a part of the Temple Emanu-El community. Our congregation not only has weekly Shabbat morning services but in fact gathers for all sorts of reasons, and I encourage you to come to any of the programs and events we will have in the coming month and throughout the year. If you aren't sure where to start, the temple website always has the most current information about upcoming activities. You also can call the temple office for additional information. If you don't see something you'd like to try, please be in touch to let me know what you would like to see happening at Temple Emanu-El. I love it when people are in our building to spend time together in good company!

Coming up in January is a program I've been looking forward to since the summer. Back in 2020, I attended my first Martin Luther King Jr. service at

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Temple Emanu-El, and I was deeply moved by the strength of spirit and outpouring of love. I am looking forward to carrying on this cherished tradition. Coming together with our neighbors in song and prayer to express our shared values of addressing racial inequity and pursuing justice will be a powerful way to find hope and uplift in light of the current social and political climate. The theme of this year's service is "Seeds of Hope." It is my hope that we find our own seeds of hope that we can cultivate in the community and wherever we find ourselves. If you have never been to the Martin Luther King Jr. service at Temple Emanu-El or it's been a while since you attended, I strongly encourage you to come this year so that you might also be moved by the experience and inspired to continue the work of repairing our world. The service will be on Friday January 12 at 7:00 pm in our sanctuary.

I want to mention two other programs you'll want to put on your calendar for January. On Sunday January 21 at 11:00 am in Starensier Assembly, we will celebrate Tu biSh'vat with our community seder. Tu biSh'vat, the 15th of the month of Sh'vat, is the new year of the trees. This holiday originally marked a significant agricultural date in Israel, a starting point for counting the age of fruit trees to know when it is appropriate to harvest and tithe the fruit. In our times, the holiday has become an opportunity to reflect on our connection to the land of Israel and our relationship with the environment. We give thanks for all that trees and nature provide us and recommit ourselves to responsible stewardship of our precious resources.

Second, Soup Shabbat returns this month! On Friday January 26 at 6:30 pm (note the time!), come enjoy a dairy/vegetarian potluck dinner and Shabbat blessings with your Temple Emanu-El friends. As with the first Soup Shabbat, I'll provide a soup and challah. You are welcome to bring a dairy or vegetarian dish to share or simply come for the soup. Please check the Temple Emanu-El food allergy and kashrut policy if you have any questions about what to bring.

Although the temperatures outside might be cold this January, Temple Emanu-El will be warm when we gather to learn, sing, pray, and grow together as a community. I look forward to seeing you soon in this new solar year!

Bivracha,

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Shalom Temple Emanu-El community,

What a wonderful December (Kislev and start of Tevet) we have had. The Temple building has been full of a flurry of activity between services (Friday night and Saturday Shabbat services), religious school, latke making/ packing, menorah lighting, and an Installation. I hope you were able to participate with us.

As we approach January, we look forward to hearing our Makeila (combined with the Calvary Baptist Church) for our Martin Luther King service on Friday, January 12. We hope to fill the sanctuary, as music warms our hearts and spirits.

As always, please e-mail me with any questions or comments – president@templeemanu-el.org

Take care and stay warm!

Jenn

CHESED COMMITTEE MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

The Temple Emanu-El Pickleball team, sponsored by the Chesed Committee for retired folks, has settled into its winter quarters....no, not in Florida, but in the temple gym on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

We happily had a Chanukah lunch together, followed by a trip to Emmaus House with bags of groceries that we all brought in, expressing our gratitude for our health and vigor, our financial stability, and for having a supportive Temple Administration, as well as for our tradition of taking care of others (see photo below). Not only has this been an opportunity to engage in a great new form of exercise, the ongoing learning of a new skill, and giving us another activity for our retirement years, but also one of forming a group of new friends.

I was thrilled last week at watching the mass production of 300 latkas for Chanukah, destined for many temple events and out to folks who are no longer able to come to temple for those events. So many hands and hearts reaching out! And they were tasty, and all gone!!! Thanks to Morry Korinow for kitchen oversight, and for the many who cooked, packaged, and delivered, lots of helping hands! Speaking of which, LotsaHelpingHands (LHH), our online program that enables us to provide support to members at times of need, is back up and running. Check Lotsahelpinghands.com and see if you are listed as a member, see if there is a posted need that you might participate in, and, in the spirit of our supportive temple community, think about being one additional person who can be of some help.

In conjunction with the Adult Education Committee, we had Mary Crowe, LICSW, Director of Community Relations at Care Dimensions, talk with us in October, with her usual engaging and sensitive style, about The Power of Listening/Presence. It was a well-received program that we all learned from.

The Chesed Committee would welcome new members (hint: we don't meet too often), to discuss new programs, review what we are currently doing, and work with our Clergy, Board and Staff to provide support or enhance our members' lives at challenging times.

Sharyn Russell,

Chesed Committee Chair

★ TEMPLE EMANU-EL ★

Honor Your Father and Your Mother

It is a widely observed Jewish tradition to commemorate the passing of a loved one by memorializing those that have departed with a yahrzeit plaque on a dedicated memorial wall.

At Temple Emanu-El, these plaques are lit on the yahrzeit, or anniversary of death, and for Yizkor services.

Plaques are inscribed with the name of the deceased in both English and Hebrew as well as the date of the person's death. They are available to view whenever the sanctuary is open.

The one-time cost of the plaque is $300. To purchase a plaque in honor of a departed loved one, order online or contact Lisa or Rabbi Stevens at 978.373.3861.
